

Nov 15th UU Service

“Blessed to Receive”

Join the UU Fellowship in welcoming Rev. Karen Gustafson as our guest minister at the November 15th service. Rev. Gustafson’s sermon is entitled “Blessed to Receive”- In this season of Thanksgiving it is good to remind ourselves how important it is to be not only a willing giver but a gracious receiver. Being grateful does not require us to be deserving. It only requires that we be willing to receive.”

Rev. Gustafson is the Associate Minister at the First Unitarian Society of Madison. Prior to accepting this position in August of 2007, Karen was the Minister of the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Duluth, Minnesota where she served for 21 years. Karen will be accompanied by her husband, John with whom she shares four adult children and three grand children.

The Unitarian Universalist Fellowship is located at 3116 Algoma Street, Stevens Point, WI. Services and religious education for children both start at 10:00 AM. Childcare is available during the service. The UU Fellowship is dedicated to the acceptance and participation of persons in the full range of our Fellowship and society without regard to race, age, sex, disability, sexual identity or orientation, or national origin.
