

"The Hebrew Bible: From the Righteous to the Ribald" UU Service Jan 29th

The UU Fellowship welcomes back Richard Olson for his service "The Hebrew Bible: From the Righteous to the Ribald." Rich in story, myth and metaphor, the Hebrew Bible has offered spiritual sustenance throughout the centuries. It also contains all of the human drama we still live out today. Sex, violence, incest, genocide, revenge; if ever a book should be banned from high school libraries this is it!

Richard Olson is retired from Stevens Point Area Senior High School (SPASH) where he taught Spanish for 30 years. He now volunteers for the Marathon County Literacy Council and substitute teaches in the Wausau area. He has been an active member of the Universalist Unitarian Church of Wausau for some 20 years and has led many services there. He also leads services at the Northwoods Fellowship in Woodruff. Theology is one of his hobbies.

The children's 1st through 4th grade religious education program is schedule to learn about Lydia Maria Child.

The Unitarian Universalist Fellowship is located at 3116 Algoma Street, Stevens Point, WI. Services and religious education for children both start at 10:00 AM.

Childcare is available during the service. The UU Fellowship is dedicated to the acceptance and participation of persons in the full range of our Fellowship and society without regard to race, age, sex, disability, sexual identity or orientation, or national origin.
