

Dec 4th UU Service "Are We Inherently Good or Just Out to Get Each Other?"

"Are we inherently good or just out to get each other?" Jim Coakley explores this age old question with help from a piece of contemporary musical theater - RENT. Answering this question may depend on one's world view represented by four characters from the show and how they cope with the AIDS epidemic and aggressive capitalism.

Jim is beginning his third year as a part time seminarian at Meadville Lombard Theological School. He will be preaching twice a month and leading occasional Wednesday night activities as a part of his Student Ministry Rotation with SPUUF this year. He lives in Appleton with his spouse, two teenage children, and a dog. He is employed full time at Kimberly Clark as a Sales Planning Team Leader. If he does get any spare time, you'll probably find him on his bike - even in the winter!

The children's 1st through 4th grade religious education program is schedule to learn about Unitarian Universalist Christopher Reeve.

The Unitarian Universalist Fellowship is located at 3116 Algoma Street, Stevens Point, WI. Services and religious education for children both start at 10:00 AM. Childcare is available during the service. The UU Fellowship is dedicated to the acceptance and participation of persons in the full range of our Fellowship and society without regard to race, age, sex, disability, sexual identity or orientation, or national origin.
