

“Investing in the Tao” UU Service Oct 30

The Unitarian Universalist Fellowship welcomes back Richard Olson for his sermon “Investing in the Tao.” From ancient scriptures to modern-day self-help books we invest our time and money in the search for understanding, inspiration and meaning. But there may be no better investment than the Tao Te Ching, the "classic manual on the art of living". Led by Taoist Richard Olson.

Richard Olson is retired from Stevens Point Area Senior High School (SPASH) where he taught Spanish for 30 years. He now volunteers for the Marathon County Literacy Council and substitute teaches in the Wausau area. He has been an active member of the Universalist Unitarian Church of Wausau for some 20 years and has lead many services there. He also leads services at the Northwoods Fellowship in Woodruff. Theology is one of his hobbies.

The children’s 1st through 4th grade religious exploration class is scheduled to learn about Clara Barton.

The Unitarian Universalist Fellowship is located at 3116 Algoma Street, Stevens Point, WI. Services and religious education for children both start at 10:00 AM. Childcare is available during the service. The UU Fellowship is dedicated to the acceptance and participation of persons in the full range of our Fellowship and society without regard to race, age, sex, disability, sexual identity or orientation, or national origin.
