

Stories of Hope - Tackling Economic and Environmental Justice

This will be an intergenerational service, led by Student Minister Jim Coakley and members of the Green Sanctuary and Social Action committees. The 1st through 4th grade religious exploration class will participate in the service.

The Unitarian Universalist Fellowship is located at 3116 Algoma Street, Stevens Point, WI. Services and religious education for children both start at 10:00 AM. Childcare is available during the service. The UU Fellowship is dedicated to the acceptance and participation of persons in the full range of our Fellowship and society without regard to race, age, sex, disability, sexual identity or orientation, or national origin.
